Mt. Shiloh

"Let not your heart be troubled: ye believe in God, believe also in me." John 14:1.

Last Sunday, inspiration was felt and hearts were enlightened as members, friends, and visitors assembled for the last worship service for the year. Rev. Yuille's subject was "Another Comforter". The sermon so beautifully prepared the congregation for the Lord's Supper which was instituted following morning service.

Visitors, who were friends of Rev. Yuille joined us and contributed many echoes of praises and thanks to God for His blessings. They were members of First Baptist and Mt. Zion churches of Goode, Va. and Alpha Grove Baptist Church in Forest, Va. Their presence was greatly welcomed.

As we approach the new year and start making resolutions, let the first one be to get closer to God. Let's open our hearts and share the love and joy with others that we have received from knowing Him as our Saviour.

We pray that each and everyone will have a Happy New Year.
